

UNDERGRADUATE COMMENCEMENT

2025

Saturday, June 7, 2025

Angel of the Winds Arena | Everett, Washington

Dear SPU Class of 2025,

Congratulations on reaching this remarkable milestone. Today, we honor not only what you have achieved, but also who you have become through the journey. Whether you arrived as a first-year or a transfer student, your time at Seattle Pacific University has been marked by perseverance, growth, and transformation — academically, personally, and spiritually.

You began your studies in uncertain times, yet you moved forward with determination and hope. Along the way, you discovered new passions, formed enduring friendships, and shaped communities grounded in grace. You brought creativity, courage, and leadership that have strengthened this campus and left a lasting imprint.

As you leave SPU, you carry with you more than a degree. You bring the depth of your learning, the clarity of your calling, and the character formed in a community that believes in your potential. Rooted in Christian faith, your SPU education has equipped you to lead, to serve, and to bring hope and healing wherever you go. You are prepared to meet the challenges of this world with wisdom, compassion, and purpose.

Though your time as a student may conclude, your connection to SPU does not. The faculty who taught and mentored you, the classmates who supported you, and the community that celebrated you — all remain part of your story. We hope you will stay connected to your Falcon family in the years ahead.

As you step into the future, go with confidence. May you shine the light of Christ in your work, your relationships, and your community. The world needs your voice and your gifts.

With Prayer and Optimism,

Led by Ryan Ellis, DMA, Assistant Professor of Music; Director of Choral Music

“Great Is Thy Faithfulness”

Great is Thy faithfulness, O God my Father;
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not, Thy compassions,
they fail not;

As Thou hast been, Thou forever wilt be.

Refrain

Great is Thy faithfulness!

Great is Thy faithfulness!

Morning by morning new mercies I see.

All I have needed Thy hand hath provided;

Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!

Summer and winter and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon, and stars in their courses above
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy, and love.

Refrain

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

Refrain

Commencement Speaker

Dina González-Piña

Dina González-Piña, a leader in California's Central Valley, has spent decades serving her community through Christian higher education and nonprofit leadership.

She spent over 23 years at Fresno Pacific University as associate dean of multicultural ministries and holds degrees in education and social work, plus a leadership certificate from Fuller Theological Seminary. González-Piña served nine years on the Christian Community Development Association board and currently serves on the boards of Seattle Pacific University, the Fresno Latino Leadership Network, and the Pacific District Conference of Mennonite Brethren. Since 2020, she has been the regional executive director of the West Coast Mennonite Central Committee, leading efforts in relief, development, and peace in the name of Jesus Christ. She advocates for racial equity and leadership development. González-Piña is married to Dr. Xavier Piña and has two college-age children, Samuel and Rebecca.

History of Academic Clothing

The traditions surrounding academic regalia — gown and cap — date back to the 13th century and have their roots in clerical garments, which were the earliest form of academic attire in England. The academic gown was first used at the University of Cambridge in 1284. American universities adopted the first Intercollegiate Code of Academic Costume in 1895. The American Council on Education later standardized the use of academic regalia in 1932.

Originally adopted as a way of affirming unity in the common pursuit of learning, as well as ensuring warmth in unheated stone buildings, academic regalia is now considered traditional attire for high-ceremony academic occasions. Participants wear regalia that demonstrates — by design and color — their highest academic degree, the general discipline in which they studied, and the university from which they received their degree.

At Commencement, graduates place the tassel for their mortarboard cap on the right side, moving it to the left when their degrees are conferred. Faculty members participating in academic ceremonies wear the tassel to the left throughout the proceedings.

Seattle Pacific University proudly participates in this colorful tradition, which recognizes our part in the larger academic community and celebrates the importance of Commencement as a high ceremony.

Academic Seal and University Mace

In addition to academic clothing, Seattle Pacific University’s Commencement ceremonies include two other important features. The academic seal depicts SPU’s history, academics, and Christian faith. The University mace, which bears the academic seal, represents the authority of the president. The mace always precedes the president in academic high ceremonies.

Recognition and Awards

HONORS AT GRADUATION

The baccalaureate degree is conferred with honors on the basis of the student’s cumulative SPU college-level grade point average. Cum Laude recognizes the achievement of a 3.5–3.74 grade point average and is signified by the wearing of a white honor cord; Magna Cum Laude recognizes the achievement of a 3.75–3.89 grade point average and is signified by the wearing of a silver honor cord; Summa Cum Laude recognizes the achievement of a 3.9–4.0 grade point average and is signified by the wearing of a gold honor cord. The honors that are recognized in the Commencement ceremony are based on the Seattle Pacific University grade point average at the end of Winter Quarter and are not finalized until the official awarding of the bachelor’s degree.

PRESIDENT’S CITATION AWARD

The President’s Citation is awarded to one graduating senior each year. The finalists and recipient of this award exemplify the mission and vision of the University, are among those with the highest academic standing in their class, and have demonstrated exceptional character, outstanding leadership, and service to the SPU community.

President’s Citation Award finalists:

Hunter Beck	Gavin Priest
Mateo Cuadros	Brock Quant
Annika Esvelt	Aubrey Ramsbottom
Gigi Griep	Matthew Spickelmier
Elizabeth Horton	Tani Yoshioka
John Lee

HONORS GRADUATES:

The University Scholars

Graduates in Seattle Pacific's Honors program, the University Scholars, have completed a special sequence of accelerated, integrative, and interdisciplinary courses in the liberal arts as well as an independent Honors research project and presentation. Those who complete all Honors requirements also earn a bachelor's degree in Honors Liberal Arts.
